Dear Sir,

Sub : GST implementation in E-Auction schemes

Government of India has introduced GST (Goods and Services Tax) to come into force from 01.07.2017 which shall replace almost all indirect taxes viz. Central Excise, CST, VAT/Sales Tax, Service Tax etc.

Pursuant to the introduction of GST system, acceptance of valid professional GST registration certificate(s) from the bidders/customers by Service providers or by Coal companies become necessary in place of Sales Tax/Vat certificate/CST etc. at different steps of procurement of coal under different E-Auction schemes.

You are, therefore, advised to take necessary action for acceptance/collection of GST documents from the prospective bidders/customers & any further course of action for exercising GST under different E-Auction schemes (Special Forward, Exclusive, Spot & Special Spot etc.) as per extant GST rules.

Yours faithfully,

General Manager(M&S)
